IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.40466 of 2008
SUNAINA DEVI
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
With
Cr.Misc. No.40619 of 2008
LALO DEVI & RANI DEVI
Versus
----

2. 22.10.2008 Heard Sri Anshuman, Advocate for the petitioners and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The two petitions on behalf of the three petitioners arise out of Parasi P.S.Case No.19 of 2007 which was initially under Section 304B etc IPC but the police appears submitting final report under Section 306 IPC. The report disclosed that the lady had committed suicide and the police was informed about the incident and accordingly the dead body was permitted to be disposed of. Subsequently, allegations as in the FIR were made against the accused persons. The further contention is that the petitioner Sunaina Devi was admitted to anticipatory bail but on account of the police chasing her, she surrendered herself to the custody of the court and the order, as such, became infructuous.

As regards petitioners, Lalo Devi and

Rani Devi, it is contended that their case stand on similar footing to that of Sunaina Devi.

Regard being had to the above facts and circumstances, let the above named three petitioners be released from custody on furnishing bond of Rs.3,000/-(three thousand)each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Smt. Priti Verma, Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Jehanabad in the above noted case.
